Navigation

Case: Tabbing through fields using Firefox web browser.

Starting from first entering the page, with nothing selected, begin tabbing and seeing how it navigates through the page. Test will end once it reaches Web browser navigation fields (such as url, back page button, etc) and confirms that it loops to the same order reported.

Resulting order of navigation:

1. Hamburger Menu icon.
2. Username/email in the Sign in form.
3. Password in Sign In form.
4. "Sign In" button in Sign In form. (Skipped "Forgot Password?" link)
5. "Register" button in Sign In form. (Skipped "Not a Member?" link)
6. "First name" field in Sign Up form. (Skipped "Our Team" and "Contact Us" links)
7. "Last name" field in Sign Up form.
8. "Username" field in Sign Up form. Username field becomes highlighted in red.

9. "Email Address" field in Sign Up form. Email Address field becomes highlighted in red. Username field stays highlighted in red
10. "Password" field in Sign Up form. Password field becomes highlighted in red. Username and Email Address fields stay highlighted in red.
11. "Re-enter Password" field in Sign Up form. Re-enter Password field does NOT get highlighted in red. Username, Email Address, and Password fields remain highlighted in red.
12. The "Register" Button in Sign Up form. (Skipped "Your Image" button).
13. The entire right container, containing the Search field, port index, Trending ports, and advertisement.
14. The "Search" field.
15. The "View Port Index" button.
16. The first "Subscribe" button in the Trending Ports section.
17. The second "Subscribe" button in the Trending Ports section.
18. The third "Subscribe" button in the Trending Ports section.
19. The fourth "Subscribe" button in the Trending Ports section.
20. The fifth "Subscribe" button in the Trending Ports section.
21. The "Back" button on the web browser.
